

Kansas Originals Art and Fashion Extravaganza

Featuring the Art Work of George Eschbaugh
And Style Show by Classy Lady Boutique

Press Release

The Post Rock Opportunities Foundation is excited to announce that Steve Eschbaugh will again open the doors of the beautiful Prairie Pallet Studio for the public to view the outstanding paintings of his father, the late George Eschbaugh, for the Kansas Originals Art and Fashion Extravaganza on October 20th. This successful event, which was first held last year, will give both those who missed it and those who enjoyed it the opportunity to experience the variety of entertainment and fun provided at this happening in Wilson.

Doors will open at 5 pm and at 5:15 Steve Eschbaugh will talk about the legendary life of George Eschbaugh who founded the Eschbaugh Advertising Agency, was a philanthropist making major donations to the Ellsworth Medical Center, colleges and Universities and area not-for-profit corporations and a renowned artist especially known for his calendars. George's paintings adorn the walls of his studio and are not available for purchase.

A style show at 6 pm will delight viewers as models from around the area gracefully move down the spiral staircase in the gallery while sporting an array of stylish fashions provided by the Classy Ladies Boutique of Ellsworth. Throughout the event guests are invited to sample and purchase wine from Smoky Hill Vineyards and Winery of Salina while enjoying soothing harp music provided by harpist, RoJean Loucks of Lindsborg. The music will pause only for the time Steve will be talking.

Plenty of hors d'oeuvres, snacks and refreshments will be available to enjoy. A silent auction will be held during the event and will include numerous specialty items including an egret provided by John Scott, paintings, baskets filled with specialties and more. The silent auction will end after the style show. There will be plenty of opportunities to visit with friends, lots of food and a load of fun.

The event is held for the benefit of the Post Rock Opportunities Foundation which has the mission to promote Kansas Artists, craftsmen, food producers, and authors and to provide market places for their creative work through Kansas Originals locations and website and to strengthen the economy of the region by providing jobs and attracting tourists.

Don't miss your chance to view the outstanding paintings of George Eschbaugh and to support the Post Rock Opportunities Foundation. Tickets are only $10 each and are available at Classy Lady Boutique, the Ellsworth Independent Reporter, Kansas Originals and on www.kansasoriginals.com.
